Stanhope Fly-in to feature stunt pilots, vintage planes

STANHOPE - This Saturday and Sunday the Stanhope Fly-In and Airshow will feature two of North America's best stunt flyers. The Canadian Reds, who have become famous for their daring precision stunts in their Pitt Specials will be one of the attractions at the show, together with many aircraft featured in the show last year.

The airport itself will open at 7:30 a.m. to allow air traffic to come in on Saturday and Sunday. Parachutists from the parachute school of Toronto will practice their precision sky-diving on Saturday.

On Sunday, Airport Road and Green Lake Road adjacent to the airport will be closed from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. According to Stan Moore, president of the airport committee, this is to avoid congestion along the roads and to generate revenue from those people parking their vehicles.

The beef bar-be-que will get underway at 11 a.m. and the airshow itself is slated for 1 p.m. In addition to the precision flying by the Canadian Reds and the sky-diving and spot landing by the parachutists, the Canadian Armed Forces will perform flypasts in a T-33 jet trainer or a F-5 jet fighter, or a small jet helicopter, and a C-130 Hercules. A Buffalo STOL aircraft may also be featured.

The Canadian Warplane Heritage will be presenting Dennis Bradley and his F-4U WWII vintage Corsair, which was used in the making of the television series, Baa Baa Blacksheep.

Bob Stevens will do some miniature stunt flying with his radio-controlled Pitt Special. During the airshow, the runway will be closed to all air traffic.

In addition to these attractions, a fly-in dance is scheduled for Saturday night at 8:30 p.m., in the Community Centre and the performers will be attending. Jim McLean of Air Haliburton is giving ski-rides to sightseers and the kinsmen Club of Haliburton will feature a concession stand.

Pupils entertain parents and friends

Victoria Street public school children from grades 1, 2 and 3 presented their spring festival Friday evening before a standing room only crowd of proud parents and relatives. The festival was held at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School and began shortly before 8 p.m. Top photo is the Kindergarten class of Mrs. Walling who played "At the Circus" while below Mrs. Diane Hagerman's grade 3 class did "Shoopdedoop."

STANHOPE NOTES

A.F. Stevenson

Stanhope Township has been sponsored by the Ministry of Culture and Recreation to set up a Volunteer Assistance Center for its Senior Citizens. The plan calls for a volunteer response from those who may be interested in giving a bit of assistance to those who may need it. Since it is a pilot project, it's success and permanent establishment (centrally located within the County) depends largely on the volunteer response. Kim Gorveatt, one of Stanhope's very capable young citizens, is heading up the project and is quite busy planning a program of services for Senior Citizens which could be provided by volunteers wishing to assist with the program. Discussing the program with Kim she states that there are many ways that some seniors can be assisted ranging from lawn cutting to letter writing. Anyone interested in further information should contact Kim Gorveatt at 489-2379 Stanhope Township Office.

As indicated in this column last week, Stanhope Tennis Courts are now going to be a reality, thanks to a grant from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation in the amount of $8,979.00. This sum, together with money raised by the Recreation Committee through public support, and further aided by pledges of assistance now make possible to contact the contractor and, hopefully, get the job started. There will be doubles courts but there will be no lights for the first year and this item can be considered for next year. Now is the time for organizing a tennis club and in view of the fact that the tennis enthusiasts were by far the greatest number who indicated their interest in a recreational facility in the Township, it may be assumed that there will be a good number of interested citizens, who will wish to participate in developing this sport. Much can be done by a club in the way of obtaining grants to assist in acquiring equipment and improvements to the courts.

Readers are reminded of the big weekend at the airport June 9th/10th and while the big attraction will be on Sunday, the committee state that there will be much of interest on Saturday when aircraft will be arriving and rehearsals will be going on. Refreshment booths will be open both days and the big Beef Barbeque will be held on Sunday. Tickets for the Saturday Night dance are going well and information can be obtained by calling the airport office, that is the Stanhope-Haliburton Airport. The committee working on the special day for Stanhope have been busy on plans and a program of events is being rounded out for the day which will be held on August 18th. All Township Committees will be involved in conducting the activities which will include a horse shoe pitching tournament, a dog show, an art and craft display, a bake sale, a Senior Citizens tea, a foam demonstration and equipment display by the fire department, a childrens play and also a puppet show. At night there will be a dance in the fire hall, while there will be a bonfire and singing outside for those wishing to enjoy that. Efforts are being made to have the OPP bring the trained police dog and put on a demonstration, something which is always a favourite with those who have seen this dog at work.

The official name for the day will be decided by school students who are invited to submit their choice of a name and mail it not later than June 18th, to NAME THE DAY, STANHOPE TOWNSHIP OFFICE, R.R. 1 HALIBURTON, Ont., or bring your entry to the office. First prize is $10.00 and second prize is $5.00.

The purpose of the day is to enable the public to see what has been accomplished with the aid of funds from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation together with funds raised by public support for the efforts of the volunteer committees.

The expenses of the day will be met by funds generated from the bake sale and the concessions, and any surplus will go into a fund to provide for a bigger and better day next year - for it is the hope of the committee that their efforts this year will be so successful that the event will become an annual one.

Royally campaign misfires here

In this column you often read of what we feel is well founded criticism of various government ministries and departments. On the other hand, every so often they come up with a real gem, and in all fairness, we will back it and sing its praises to the world. So it has been with the Ministry of Industry and Tourism's "We Treat You Royally" campaign.

When the Chamber was made aware of the availability of this seminar service there were five dates available for May and June. The board of directors immediately decided to book all five dates in order to make this extremely worthwhile course available to as many people in the County as possible.

The first seminar held at the Wagon Wheel on May 17th had only a total of 12 registered, and only seven actually showed up. The second seminar was to have been held this week, June 5th at the Orange Hall in Haliburton. As of last Friday the registrations for this one were so low that it had to be cancelled.

Many seem to feel they are already doing an adequate job and can't spare the time or the money to improve on that. However, if we are going to say "We Treat You Royally" let's be sure we really mean it.

W. I. take Spring bus trip

Last Wednesday 47 people left Minden on the annual WI bus trip. Emerging from heavy fog the group reached Hamilton and toured the Erland Lee dwelling owned and operated by WI of Ontario. At lunch we found a convenient cafeteria and went to Wentworth Pioneer Village where everyone saw something of interest. Then we went to the Safari, where we saw cats, bears, camels, elephants, buffalo in a natural setting. We wondered who was watching at one point as a baboon was on top of the bus and a giraffe came close and looked in the front window. Then on board once more after the pet corner and a stop at the Ponderosa and home to end a great trip.

Hazardous Kettles

The Canadian Standards Association (CSA) is warning owners of electric kettles to be on the lookout for a possible hazard.

During the past several months thirteen kettles have reportedly exploded in Canada. Production of the kettles involved was discontinued in September 1977.

CSA is urging the public to check the base of their kettle for serial numbers which will reveal whether or not their kettle may be hazardous.

The bases of the failing kettles bear the numbers 10, 11, 14, or 16 together with either of the following: 1) CSA number LR 37933 with a red four digit number between 6100 and 7275. 2) CSA number LR 26791 with no red four digit number.

The kettles were manufactured by ETM (1976) Ltd., 857 Fenmar Drive, Weston, Ontario M1L 1C8.

CSA is warning people who own these kettles to stop using them.

Norton announces grant of over $760,000 to provincial credit and debt counselling agencies

TORONTO — More than $760,000 in provincial funds has been allocated to 28 credit counselling agencies across the province, Keith C. Norton, Minister of Community and Social Services, said today.

The agencies are non-profit organizations which counsel people with financial problems and act as mediators in arranging debt payment. The service helps people by teaching them better money management, arranging consumer debt repayment and promoting consumer credit education.

Currently, the Ministry pays 60 per cent of the agency cost, while the remaining 40 per cent is provided by community sources such as the United Way, credit grantors, municipal government grants and voluntary contributions.

"Although the Ministry provides advice and supervision, the expertise is provided by agency staff", Mr. Norton said.

"The cooperative efforts by the Ministry and the private sector to assist people with debt has been one of the main assets of the program."

Mr. Norton added that during the past year, ministry staff worked closely with members of the Ontario Association of Credit Counselling Agencies in developing a training program for credit counsellors.

"Readily available credit and changes in personal circumstances lead some people into financial difficulty," said Mr. Norton. "Credit counselling can help find the most satisfactory solution to these problems and enables people to retain their pride and also learn how to manage their financial affairs."

"Our partnership with the credit counselling agencies and the private sector has proven beneficial for people in debt", Mr. Norton said.

Mr. Norton said the total debts of cases opened last year were over $65 million. The average debt was about $8,000. Mr. Norton added: "Agencies handled about 14,000 cases, representing over 28,000 people. The program has grown to provide service to over 90 per cent of the population of Ontario."

The Ministry has been assisting credit counselling agencies in Ontario for more than 12 years.

Tractor Accidents Major Cause Of Farm Accidents

GUELPH—The tractor is the workhorse of the modern farm, but it is also the number one cause of accidental deaths on Ontario farms.

Tractor rollovers and other tractor-related accidents accounted for 30 farm fatalities in 1978, says Larry Swinn, of the Farm Safety Association of Ontario.

Forty-six people were killed as a result of farm accidents last year, compared to 50 deaths in 1977. However, the proportion of tractor-related deaths increased from one third to two thirds of the total number of accidental deaths.

Tractors are the most widely used piece of equipment on the farm, which may account for the high percentage of accidental deaths. However, many of these accidents occur because the operator is inexperienced.

"According to our statistics, it is the very young and the old who suffer the majority of accidental deaths on the farm," says Mr. Swinn.

The highest number of accidental deaths was reported for children under 15 years of age. Seventeen children were killed in farm accidents last year. This represents 37 percent of the total accidental deaths.

"Fifteen percent of the 1978 farm fatalities occurred in the over-65 years category," says Mr. Swinn. "Many of these accidents occur because of slower reflexes and declining health."

"The accidents are lower in proportion for the middle age group. In this group, experience and faster reflexes prevent accidents."

Although the level of experience affects the number of accidental deaths, the environment also plays a major role.

"When climatic conditions are good, there are fewer accidents," says Mr. Swinn. "When weather conditions are poor, farmers have to rush their work, which can result in unsafe practices."

Other causes of accidental deaths on the farm last year include other machinery, falls, blows, suffocation, drowning, gaseous fumes, and chemicals.

Merchants down Lindsay 4-1 Snell tosses 4-hitter

LINDSAY - After dropping their season opener on Wednesday evening to the Lindsay Juniors in extra innings, the Minden Merchants took their revenge on the senior team in Lindsay on Sunday afternoon.

In the top of the first inning Barry Shaw singled and scored on a double by Kirk Hewitt. Jack Snell then singled in Hewitt and the score was 2-0 after the first three batters and that proved all the runs they needed in downing the Lindsay Merchants 4-1.

Lindsay got a run back in their half of the first inning when M. Davis doubled and scored on a single by K. Tamblyn.

The game then settled into a pitchers' duel until the top of the sixth inning, when Bernie Nichols singled, went to third on a double by Dave Hartwick and scored on an infield hit by Harris Steele. Then in the top of the seventh, Shaw reached first on an error by Lindsay infield, stole second and scored on Hewitt's second double of the contest, making the final score 4-1.

Jack Snell (1-1) picked up the win for Minden, allowing just one run on six hits, walked one and fanned five. Dale Stinson (1-1) suffered the loss, giving up four runs on ten hits and struck out four.

World salmon fishing championships

The 12th annual World Salmon Fishing Championships will be held in British Columbia July 1 - Sept. 3.

Known as the B.C. Salmon Derby, it will feature a $25,000 mystery weight cash prize, making any salmon over 2 kg (five pounds) eligible to win.

Because of the hidden weight, there will be no derby area handicap. Anyone can win, even a first-timer. Derby boundaries will run from the U.S. border north, including all inland waters south of the Seymore Narrows and Stewart Island.

Two Minden errors give Bobcaygeon 3-2 victory

MINDEN - Once again home field advantage went against the Minden Merchants as they dropped their second in a row on Wednesday evening. Bobcaygeon Blue Jays took advantage of two merchant errors to score two unearned runs in the first inning and that was all they needed in recording a 3-2 victory.

Barry McGann popped to the third base side in the top of the first for Blue Jays and Merchants third baseman Gene Newell misplayed the ball and it dropped in foul territory giving McGann new life. He quickly took advantage of it by smashing a single to centre. Marty Nicholls then came to the plate and dropped a perfect third strike bunt down the third base line. Newell, hoping the ball would curve foul, waited too long and the runner made it to first as the ball curved into the infield. This brought up Glen Oliver who parked Jack Snell's second home run pitch of the season over the left field fence, giving the Blue Jays a 3-0 lead.

The Minden team got

There will be many other prizes, including air travel and $10,000 awarded to the angler catching the largest salmon of all. For further information, contact B.C. Salmon Derby, P.O. Box 730, New Westminster, B.C. V3L4Z7, telephone 604-521-2622.

their act together defensively after the first inning, as Snell only allowed a scratch single over the next six innings and his teammates made some great catching and fielding plays behind him.

Kirk Hewitt singled in the bottom of the first, went to second when the Blue Jay infield misplayed Snell's infield hit. Gene Newell then smashed an opposite field single to score Hewitt making the score 3-1. Then in the fourth, Hewitt led off with a triple and scored on Snell's single to left. Score now 3-2.

The fourth inning appeared to be the inning Minden was going to finally get the lead. Neil Burk, Ron Reid and Dave Dollo all singled with just one out to load the bases. However, winning pitcher John Kimble really got his act together against the powerful leadoff batters for the Merchants. Both Barry Shaw and then Hewitt popped out harmlessly to end the inning, and that proved to be the ball game.

John Kimble (1-1) earned the win, giving up 9 hits and two runs, struck out seven and the Blue Jays made two errors.

Jack Snell (1-2) who pitched perhaps his finest game in more than a year, gave up three runs on just three hits, fanned seven and his teammates committed two costly errors.

Although the Minden

team presently sits with a record of one win and two losses, they are playing great softball and should be a real contender for the league championship. The entire league is tough this year, with anyone of six teams taking the title.

The Merchants play their home games each Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. so why not come out and support them this summer? Who knows, maybe with a few people in the stands the Merchants can break their losing string at two games on home turf against the Lindsay Merchants.

High school 5-pinnors break five Ontario records

SCARBOROUGH - Members of the boys' team from Smith Falls District Collegiate Institute and a girls' team from Lively District Secondary School near Sudbury are the 1979 Ontario Champions of the All Ontario High School Bowling Championships.

Five Ontario records for the event were broken and a sixth was matched in the fifth annual edition of the tournament, played Sunday, May 27, at Aprile Lanes in Scarborough. Awards were presented during a Victory banquet at the Ontario Science Centre.

The Lively girls' team rolled a record 1204 pins in the second of three games, and finished with a record 3335 total in winning first place. Both former records, an 1198 single and 3226 triple, were set one year ago by Sherwood Secondary School in Hamilton.

The Smiths Falls boys' team total of 3469 pins was good enough for first place this year, but was short of the record 3686 triple bowled in 1976 by Hamilton's Southmount Secondary School.

Kevin Jepson of Central Peel Secondary School in Brampton put himself in the record book for a first-

The Emotional Teacher Issue

By W. Roger Worth

To fire or not to fire. That's the emotionally charged question facing boards of education across the country as student enrolment dwindles.

The issue in a word: money. Many elected education officials argue strongly that savings from declining enrolment in elementary and secondary schools should be passed on to the public in the form of lower taxes.

Canada's teachers and many Parent-Teacher Associations, on the other hand, vehemently oppose this position, favoring a reduction in class sizes and an increased emphasis on special education, thus maintaining the present level of employment.

The reason for the reduced enrolment, of course, is Canada's low birth rate and cutbacks in immigration. As a result, there are fewer children to be educated.

The teachers defend their position by contending that smaller classes would upgrade the quality of education by allowing instructors to spend more time with individual students. Naturally, such a change would require more teachers.

But the education officials who control the dollars point out that teacher's salaries are responsible for about 75% of education spending. By limiting the number of teachers they can at least hold the line on tax increases.

In addition, they also point to a U.S. study that indicates smaller classes have little effect on the quality of education.

The battle between diametrically opposed factions in the high stakes game is being waged from Halifax to Vancouver, with emotions running high as layoffs continue.

In Toronto, for example, 3,000 people turned out for a board of education session that overturned an effort to lay off several hundred instructors.

In other areas of Canada, the radio hotlines hum as well-organized teachers take the offensive in attempting to achieve taxpayer support for their position.

Fallout from the situation has caused turmoil among those considering teaching as a profession. Enrolment in teacher-training courses has been chopped dramatically and more than 25% of last year's teacher's college graduates still haven't found jobs.

Meanwhile, fights over the closing of schools continues, with some secondary units dropping course options to trim budgets.

There is no simple solution to the problem. Education has become a gut issue in Canada and it's not about to go away.

Ontario's school bus inspection program to include all buses

TORONTO — Ontario's mandatory school bus inspection program has been expanded to include most categories of buses in the province, Transportation and Communications Minister James Snow said today.

"The program, effective October 31, 1979, is designed to further ensure that all buses operating on Ontario streets and highways are in good mechanical condition," the Minister said.

It's based on our highly-successful school bus inspection program, which is one of the most comprehensive in North America.

Under the program, a "bus" is defined as a motor vehicle with dual wheels or tandem rear axles, other than those fitted with a truck or delivery body, designed to carry 10 or more passengers.

It includes all buses operated by or under contract to a municipality or transit authority, buses licensed as public vehicles under The Public Vehicles Act; and similar vehicles used for the transportation of persons in wheelchairs, regardless of the designed seating capacity.

"In effect," Snow said, "the new inspection program covers nearly all bus categories, including buses privately owned and operated by colleges and universities, church and service groups, sports organizations and industry."

Snow said the inspections must be carried out by a registered licensed mechanic at one of the 9,000 licensed inspection stations in the province, or at licensed company-owned facilities.

Vehicles which meet the required standards will be issued two stickers — a safety inspection sticker valid for six months, and a special brake inspection sticker valid for 12. Both must be displayed in full view on the inner surface of the windshield.

"Ministry inspectors will, of course, carry out random audit inspections of the 8,000 vehicles included in the program to ensure compliance," Snow said.

"Buses carrying passengers after October 31st of this year and without valid safety and inspection stickers will be removed from service until they are obtained."

SCANDINAVIAN STYLE LOG BUILDING

Here Art Floyd, President of the Canadian Log Building Association gives Gary Kenney owner of the Blairhampton Alternative and President of the Ontario Log Building Association, a hand in placing a sod roof on one of the Scandinavian style log buildings on his property. The sod roof is an experiment Mr. Kenney is trying, to see the insulation value of the sod. The sod roof is about 12" thick.

Above is a 2500 pound kitchen table built by Gary Kenney last year. The table is 20 feet long and eight feet wide and will be enclosed inside a French Canadian style log building later this summer.

The Blairhampton Alternative

BLAIRHAMPTON — The Blairhampton Alternative is the brain-child of Gary Kenney. Gary has purchased 30 acres of bush land here and has a five-year plan to take a lot of the alternatives of today and turn them into an inexpensive way of life.

"My plan for this property is to build log and timber homes," said Kenney. "As for hydro, we will be using wind generated electricity, we will experiment with organic gardening, use compost toilets and heat our buildings with passive solar heating.

At the end of the five-year plan, Kenney hopes to put courses on during the summer showing others how these alternatives can be accomplished. He will bring in experts in the solar field and also on organic gardening from Canada and the U.S.

Mr. Kenney is presently the president of the Ontario Log Builders Association and also the secretary of the newly formed Haliburton Guild of Log and Timber Joinery which is made up of six local men. The Joinery will build your home or cottage at their site and re-erect it in your location.

Besides Mr. Kenney, the Joinery consists of Bob Clift, Glenn Diezel, Steve Watt, Dave Phillips and Steve Cooper. They also construct timber fireplace framing, shelters, tables, additions, etc.

Hand crafted log and timber homes and cottages are warmer in winter and cooler in summer. This is a fact and it has been proven that logs increase in R value by as much as 50 percent when temperatures drop.

Hand crafted log and timber homes do not rely on expensive energy demanding machinery and factory processes. The bulk of the energy requirements is in the form of individual crafts persons utilizing hand tools to custom build your home or cottage with a personal 'statement' no factory or prefab can match and they are no more expensive than comparable building methods.

There are two predominant styles of log buildings in Canada, Scandinavian Full Scribe and French Canadian Piece-en-Piece. The Scandinavian way is to fit logs together so no light or air can get in. The Piece-en-Piece style do not use horizontal logs rather it is framed like a barn, posts and beams, instead of moon shaped logs, then mortised and tenon.

Commencing the first week of July, Gary Kenney, Art Floyd from BC and the men of the Joinery will be conducting four, one week courses at the Blairhampton site with ten students each week.

Last week The Express visited the Blairhampton site and Mr. Kenney was putting a sod roof on one of the constructed log cabins. The roof (see photos) consists of rolled roofing, one side has stones tarred in place while the other side is left with just the roofing material. Then there are two layers of sod on the roof, bottom layer green side down and top layer green side up, to keep the root systems alive and hopefully they will bind together.

VIRGO (8-23/9-22): Watch your words this week, Virgo. Don't be too critical and do keep you own counsel. Stick with tried-and-true friends for most comfortable conversa-

Later, expect news from afar. Take a short trip with a friend. Week's end sees you in a strictly brass-tacks situation. You'll need more than a cushion for this one; have a hammer handy.

SCORPIO (10-24/11-22): Dear Scorp, you're smart and you're strong. And sometimes, without meaning to, and without realizing it, you tend to manipulate one of the lesser souls around you. Don't fall into that trap this week, sweetheart.

SAGITTARIUS (11-23/12-21): Beware of jealousy this week, Saj; even you can fall prey to that ol' green-eyed monster! Then, be just a little bit mysterious; you'll find it will make you even more attractive than usual. Days close definitively.

CAPRICORN (12-22/1-19): Keep a close check on your budget in week ahead, Cappy; but despite careful planning, a sudden expenditure may be unavoidable. Later, that current rumor has almost no basis in fact; ignore it. Week ends with warmth.

AQUARIUS (1-20/2-19): Be tolerant, Aquari, but don't let your tolerance stop you from holding fast to your own differing opinions and expressing them to others. Then, go boogie with a fiery partner, a Saj, or maybe a Leo.

PISCES (2-20/3-20): You have the unique ability of being able to see, often intuitively, what others can't. And this can pose a problem. Pisces. Do tell, or do you keep mum? Sam can't give you the answer, but your heart usually can, angel.
